JAZZ AT ITS VERY BEST

Featuring Guest Artists Peter Krauss and Lisa Turci

Peter Krauss is one of the busiest and most versatile free-lance keyboard players in the Southwest. In addition to concert appearances as featured soloist, Peter is often heard live and on record for visiting artists such as Richie Cole, Ed Shaughnessy, Max Roach and many others.

Lisa Turci has been delighting Oklahoma audiences for nearly three decades. She began her career singing in her father's church choirs and was singing professionally with bands while still in high school. As a student of Inez Silberg at Oklahoma City University, Lisa developed the fundamental skills that today allow her to be comfortable singing virtually any style. In 1975 she and Peter were married and today perform as a duo in every format from keyboard/voice to big bands.

Peter and Lisa recently hosted a PBS special "The Piano Hour," and in February of this year they were featured artists with the Oklahoma City Philharmonic.
